Superintendent's Message

Dear School Community Member,

We are proud to present the 2015 issue of our annual "Awards Winning Newsletter." We hope that you will enjoy reading about the wonderful academic and extra-curricular success of our Elementary and Jr.-Sr. High School students.

Our School District Newsletter is mailed to school district residents and is also available on our school district website at www.newyorkmills.org.

The New York Mills school community has every reason to be proud of the outstanding efforts of our K-12 students during the 2015-16 school year. On behalf of our board of education, administration, faculty, and staff, we wish you a restful, safe, and enjoyable summer. We look forward to another productive and activity filled school year in September.

Sincerely,

Kathy Houghton

Superintendent of Schools

Happy Retirement!

Mr. Doug Williams has been our trusty school monitor and official greeter since 2004. The students and staff at NYM wish you a relaxing and enjoyable retirement!

Mrs. Anna Grossi is leaving our district after working here since 1997! After serving as a school monitor in the elementary, she and her husband plan on traveling and visiting with their children and grandchildren. Enjoy!

5th and 6th Grade Volleyball Club

An opportunity to learn more about the sport of volleyball happened this spring for fifth and sixth grade girls. Volleyball club, presented by New York Mills JV and Varsity players, met each Tuesday for several weeks. Upperclassmen Haley Simon, Juliet Pinkos, Danielle Froio, Samantha Nessia and Sarah Hassan, helped teacher and coach Ms. Viel, educate players on the fundamentals of the sport. The program was a fun and successful event, and it will certainly promote a boost in interest for all modified players next winter.

Reading Buddies – Second Graders and Seniors Connect

Ms. Viel's Advanced Placement Literature class took time out of their end of the year schedules to go and read to Mrs. Zbytniewski and Mrs. Goodfriend's second graders. Each senior buddied up with various youngsters and read a variety of different books for fun and education. This reading partnership created an exciting bond between the upperclassmen and elementary students where they were able to share their love of reading.

Senior Awarded OHM BOCES Kathleen Clements Scholarship

New York Mills Jr./Sr. High School senior Courtney Spost was awarded the seventh annual Kathleen A. Clements Scholarship from the Oneida-Herkimer-Madison BOCES School and Business Alliance (SABA) on May 27, 2015.

The $500 award was given to Spost based on her hard work, participation in the School and Business Alliance program, commitment to learning, letter of recommendation and an ongoing desire to be of help to the community.

Spost, who always had an interest in nursing, volunteered at a local nursing home, but her participation in a SABA career shadow at St. Elizabeth Medical Center confirmed that nursing was the career for her. Later, Spost was able to intern back at St. Elizabeth Medical Center through the Regional Program for Excellence.

“What I learned and experienced as an RPE intern definitely helped me more easily understand the concepts I anticipate learning at SUNY Poly,” said Spost, who will begin to major in nursing at SUNY Polytechnic Institute in the fall of 2015. “The program allowed me to explore what I love to do more than I ever would have expected it to ... it helped me recognize that I would love to become a nurse and help someone every day.”

With her nursing degree, she plans to travel the world helping those in most need. Later, she plans to further her education to become a nurse practitioner specializing in either pediatrics or oncology.

Spost has been a member of the Student Council and is currently the executive president. While in this role, Spost has been able to organize such events as a fall community clean-up day in her neighborhood, create Thanksgiving baskets for the homeless women and children at Emmaus House in Utica, and collect cans for local veterans in February. Her next project is to join the “Thirst Project,” which raises money to drill wells in countries where clean water is not available.

She has also spent time peer-tutoring in math, has been a cheerleader and played softball, was in Drama Club the past two years, was inducted into the National Honor Society this year, was a Youth Ambassador for the Broadway Theater League, and volunteered for the Utica Zoo and the public library. In addition to all of this, Spost has won numerous awards and has maintained a 90+ average.

The Kathleen A. Clements Scholarship was founded in 2008 to honor the memory of Kay Clements, former School and Business Alliance director at the OHM BOCES. Clements served in this position from 1991 through 2008 and dedicated herself to two concepts: showing students they could go further than they originally thought they could, and demonstrating that school and business partnerships are the most effective way to ensure the Mohawk Valley has a talented pool of qualified professionals.

Student Achievement Award Winner

Courtney Tramacera was awarded the Oneida-Madison-Herkimer School Boards Institute Student Achievement Award. Courtney, along with recipients from other school districts, was presented with the award at a dinner on May 14 at the Radisson Hotel. Courtney is a member of the New York Mills Class of 2016 and is the daughter of Anthony and Renee Tramacera.

Thank You!

Thank you to all New York Mills students, parents, staff and community members for the support you have shown our son, Robert Murray.

The Second Annual Mr. Marauder Pageant

Senior males from the Class of 2015 walked the runway for a night of hilarious comedy and surprises at The Second Annual Mr. Marauder Pageant. Ten percent of the funds raised from the event were donated to the Utica Veteran's Center, along with a large donation of canned goods that were collected for their pantry. Senior contestants competed in four categories and answered questions on the spot that related to student life, health and wellness, and manners. The gentlemen also displayed their wide ranging talents in a segment before modeling their best attire in the formal wear category. Admission to the event was $6.00 or $5.00 with the donation of a canned good.

The Master of Ceremonies was senior Lucas Sunderlin. Mr. Marauder 2015 was awarded to Nick Vanderwood, and Mr. Congeniality was awarded to Cameron Lyons. Other senior contestants were Jason Browne, Jeffrey Cirusuolo, Anthony Casaletta, Ryan Mason, Colin Garcia, Dylan Fennell, and Devan Rodriguez. A special thank you goes out to seniors Katie Morrissey, Courtney Spost and Sara Zarnoch for all their diligent and amazing expertise with the show. There was also a surprise faculty member who danced with the seniors during the gentlemen's group talent! Mr. Eramo dressed in our mascot Beeker's attire and wowed the crowd when removing his disguise in the final moments. Faculty judges were Mr. Auffrey, Mrs. Gates, Mr. Ricco, and Ms. Foote. The special guest judge was WKTV's Meteorologist Jill Reale, who even made sure our show was mentioned on the news at 11:00 p.m. that night!

If you missed the show and would like a DVD copy of the pageant, Student Council is selling copies for 10 dollars each. Please email Ms. Viel at aviel@newyorkmills.org to order your copy today or pick yours up!

Music News

The New York Mills Music department has been very busy in the last few months. The drama club presented the musical Oklahoma to packed houses on March 13 and 14. The musical received rave reviews and nominations for awards at this year's first annual Landmark High School Theatre Awards ceremony. The cast and crew of the musical attended the awards in Syracuse on May 30. The ceremony showcased and acknowledged the work of all parts of our schools musical as well as rate our school among 23 other schools from all over central New York. A huge THANK YOU goes out to everyone who helped to make this year's musical such a success.

On May 9, 75 members of the New York Mills chorus participated in the Music in the Parks Festival in Six Flags, New England in Massachusetts. The chorus worked for three months preparing two musical selections that were judged and graded by professional musicians. The chorus members were given the opportunity to perform against students from different states and received the highest award that our school has received in several years. After a successful performance the chorus spent the rest of the day enjoying the theme park and all the fun it has to offer.

Other musical events that have happened in our music department include participation in NYSSMA (Janlynn McCoy), Jr. High All-County (Alexandria Thomas and Gretchen Biel), Elementary All-County (Hannah Mahardy on clarinet, Sophia Lyn on flute), the Memorial Day parade, and, of course, the band and chorus concerts for both elementary and high school. Many awards are also given to our senior music students for their continued effort, participation and musicianship over the course of their years here at New York Mills.

The music department would like to thank the community for their continued support of the music program here at New York Mills. We look forward to another busy and successful musical school year in 2015-2016. Have a wonderful, music filled summer!

5th Grade Students Graduate the DARE Program

New York Mills 5th grade DARE students in Mrs. Grogan's and Mrs. Kehrli's classes graduated from the DARE Program April 9, 2015. During this program they learned about the effects of drugs and violence on their life and on their bodies. How stress affects the body, and appropriate ways to deal with it. Bullying and not to be a bystander, but to help stop it or go to your help network to report it so that it can be stopped. They also learned to be confident when talking to anyone and practices how to say no when asked to do something they felt was uncomfortable.

During DARE we talked about helping kids and in doing this they collected pull tabs for kids their own age who have medical problems. The pull tabs are turned in for the weight of aluminum. Mr. K. Pape and Mr. Sam Trapanick from the Ziyara Shrine spoke to the students and parents at graduation. They told them that the money is then used to purchase items like: computer software for the kids to play on, traction equipment, arts and craft supplies, special splints for arms and legs, just to name a few.

They learned by simply saving one small item, another child will be able to walk, ride a bike, hold a toy or hug a parent.

If you would like to continue this effort, you can save pull tabs from any can and bring them in for next year's 5th grade DARE students. Please drop them off for Deputy Nancy Nicholl.

Red Cross Blood Drive Success

Student Council, in conjunction with the American Red Cross, hosted its second blood drive this year in June. Students and faculty members had 19 productive units of blood collected! This equates to helping save up to 57 lives. Additionally, due to our partnership with the Red Cross, they generously donate a scholarship to a graduating senior. This year's recipient is Ryan Mason. Ryan always volunteers to donate blood with enthusiasm, often choosing to partake in the double red blood cell donation. His 400 dollar scholarship is directly deposited to his institution of higher learning. Best of luck at SUNY Potsdam this fall, Ryan!

New Executive Student Council Members for 2015-2016

Next Year's Executive Student Council Officers are President Shawn Essafi, Vice President Brianna Fuccillo, Secretary Madison Cudhea, Treasurer Cassidy Albright, and Historian Jordyn Keeck-Beach.

Student Leaders Make the Magic Happen!

Ten students attended District XI's 20th Annual Student Council Leadership Conference on March 16, 2015, at SUNY Geneseo's campus. The theme of the conference had a Disney-esque feel as the student presenters spoke of the magic and power of being a leader. Those in attendance heard Canadian speaker Andy Thibodeau tell his influential message, "Share Your Care," where he provided personal anecdotes and tools for being a positive mentor among peers in one's school.

Additionally, students attended various workshops designed to encourage school spirit, fundraising, and overall community. The students networked with other leaders from 39 different schools, making new friendships and connections. They shared ideas about homecoming events, dances, and more. Students who attended were Madison Cudhea, Joey Marchese, AJ Mitchell, Adriana Perretta, Caitlyn Mackay, Megan Crist, Natalie Ciaccia, Jordyn Keeck-Beach, Brianna Fuccillo and Shawn Essafi.

JKB Goes to Albuquerque, New Mexico

Future Senior Jordyn Keeck-Beach attended the National Student Council Leadership Conference in June. She and other student leaders from across New York state met with other students from across the country to share their passion about making a notable change in their schools. As a New York State Student Board Member, Jordyn hopes to bring back many new and exciting ideas from her trip to New Mexico.

The Thirst Project

Did you know that 70 percent of our planet is water? However, only 2.5 percent of that is freshwater, and that teeny percentage is what is available for the 7 billion people of our planet! That means that a large portion of our world does not have access to clean drinking water – a vital necessity for the health and wellness of all human beings. At the 20th Annual District XI's Leadership Conference, many New York Mills students were exposed to knowledge about the world's water crisis. Upon learning of this dilemma, students invited members of the Thirst Project to come and present at our school.

The Thirst Project is a nonprofit organization that exists to raise awareness of and bring solutions to the global water crisis. They are the world's leading youth water activism organization. In the past six years, students around the country have raised more than 8 million dollars, 100 percent of which has been used to give more than 260,000 people in 12 countries safe, clean water.

Presenters Zachary and Justin shared their personal stories of how they became involved in their endeavor to help the 1 billion people on our planet who do not have access to safe, clean water. Traveling across the country from their headquarters in Los Angeles, California, these gentlemen spoke to students about how they can help make a difference to give people in third world countries access to clean water. Their presentation to the student body will likely be something that student council will work to donate to in the near future, making a positive impact not just locally, but globally as well.

Spring Community Clean-Up

Various members of Student Council took time out of their busy schedule to go and help senior citizen Irene Green get ready for spring! Council members worked in conjunction with the Oneida County Youth Bureau to help clear leaves and other debris from Ms. Green's yard, who happily treated the students to some delicious candy after all their hard work. Individuals who helped were Holly Simon, Amanda Costello, Nina Fellone, Kiley Lyons, Brianna Taylor, Kaitlyn Carman, Abbey Copperwheat, Sarah Sharpe, Nick Acee, Megan Crist, Natalie Ciaccia, Adrianna Perretta, Sarah McAndrew, Katie Morrissey, Sara Zarnoch, Cameron Lyons, Allison Swider, and Nick Vanderwood. If you are interested in having students come and help with your yard work in the fall, please contact the Oneida County Youth Bureau at 315.798.5027.

Success is Sweet

Learning truly is a "Sweet Success!" Many of our 2nd through 6th grade students were honored at our 1st annual "Success is Sweet" academic celebration. Fifty students that made the High Honor Roll with an overall average between 90 and 100 for three consecutive quarters and twenty-five students with the highest overall academic average were invited to this "sweet" event. Our honored students received a pin in recognition of their hard work and achievement. Immediately following the ceremony, students and their families were invited to enjoy some "sweet" treats. A wonderful night was enjoyed by all. Thank you to faculty, staff, PTSO, and families for making this night a true success!
